CITY SCHEDULES FORUMS TO DISCUSS YOUTH SOLUTIONS

BURLINGTON, NC— In response to recent City Council discussions regarding the prevention of youth violence, the City has scheduled two facilitated forums surrounding solutions. These forums will allow for a solutions-oriented dialogue during which attendees will work with a facilitator in small groups to discuss what can be done in our community to prevent violence committed by, against, or among young people.

Thursday, February 1st
6:00 – 7:30pm
Burlington Assembly of God
Life Center
821 Tucker Street
Burlington, NC 27215

Thursday, February 8th
6:00 – 7:30pm
Positive Attitudes Youth Center
229 North Graham Hopedale Road
Burlington, NC 27217

The “youth solutions forums” are open to the public and any interested community member is encouraged to attend. Young people, teachers, preachers, mentors, parents, aunts, uncles, grandparents, coaches and neighbors are specifically invited to become a part of the solution by engaging in this initial conversation.

RSVPs are suggested so that the facilities can be appropriately equipped to accommodate forum attendees. RSVP online at www.BurlingtonNC.gov/YouthSolutions or contact Public Policy Director Rachel Kelly at (336) 222-5076.
