SALVATION ARMY LINK TRANSIT STOP ADDED TO THE ORANGE ROUTE

Burlington, NC – The Alamance County Salvation Army located on North Anthony Street now has a new Link Transit bus stop! Based on community need as well as requests from the community and the Salvation Army staff, Link Transit personnel evaluated the feasibility of adding a new stop closer to the facility. In late 2018 the Salvation Army location assumed the role of Alamance County’s food pantry.

The stop has been added to the orange route at the intersection of Dixie and Stockard St. We are proud to offer another resource for citizens that are in need. The Salvation Army now provides access to education, fresh food, and health care. Normal fares are $1.00 with reduced fares available to students, senior citizens, and disabled individuals.

Link Transit currently operates five routes in Burlington, spanning from Gibsonville to Alamance Community College. The Link Transit hub is located on Worth Street in downtown Burlington between Webb Avenue and Front Street. A detailed map of routes and stops is available online here: <http://linktransit.org/schedules/> Individuals interested in learning more about what it takes to meet the criteria for a new transit stop please email info@LinkTransit.org.

Questions can be directed to Link Transit at (336) 222-5465 or info@linktransit.org.
