The Paramount Theater Announces New Series of Special Programming

BURLINGTON, NC—

The Paramount Theater and the City of Burlington Recreation & Parks Department have booked a series of four acts for its inaugural PARAMOUNT PRESENTS series.

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS kicks off on October 25 with the family-favorite Cirque du Canines. On December 27, The Embers Year-End Beach Bash brings a little summer fun to the holiday season. Electronic Violin phenoms The Sons of Mystro take to the stage with their Pop- and Reggae-infused stylings on February 8 and British soul-blues band The James Hunter Six close out the season on April 8.

“We’re thrilled to bring these fantastic performers to Burlington” said Paramount Managing Director, Dave Wright. “The variety of talent in the PARAMOUNT PRESENTS line-up means there is something here for everyone and we hope more and more people come downtown to enjoy this gem of theater.”

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS Fall 2019 – Spring 2020 Season

October 25, 2019 – Cirque du Canines - a family-oriented show featuring a variety of trained dogs, performing circus-like tricks, one-of-a-kind stunts, high-flying fun, comedy and audience participation.

December 27, 2019 – The Embers - North Carolina's premiere Beach Music band. Dance on stage and prizes for the best beach costumes.

February 8, 2020 – Sons of Mystro - Born in South Florida to a Jamaican father and Barbadian mother, brothers Malcolm and Umoja learned to play violin through South Florida’s public school system and attended Dillard High School for the Performing Arts. April 8, 2020 – James Hunter Six - James Hunter has certainly paid his dues. Over the span of 30 years, he’s worked on the railway, busked in the streets of London, provided backup vocals and guitar for Van Morrison, played clubs and theatres all over the world, written scores of original songs, and recorded some of the most original and honest rhythm & soul albums of the last two decades.
